FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG
Büro Budapest

planpolitik

CEU Center for EU Enlargement Studies
CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY

Organized by the Center for EU Enlargement Studies (CEU-CENS), Planpolitik and Friedrich Ebert Foundation

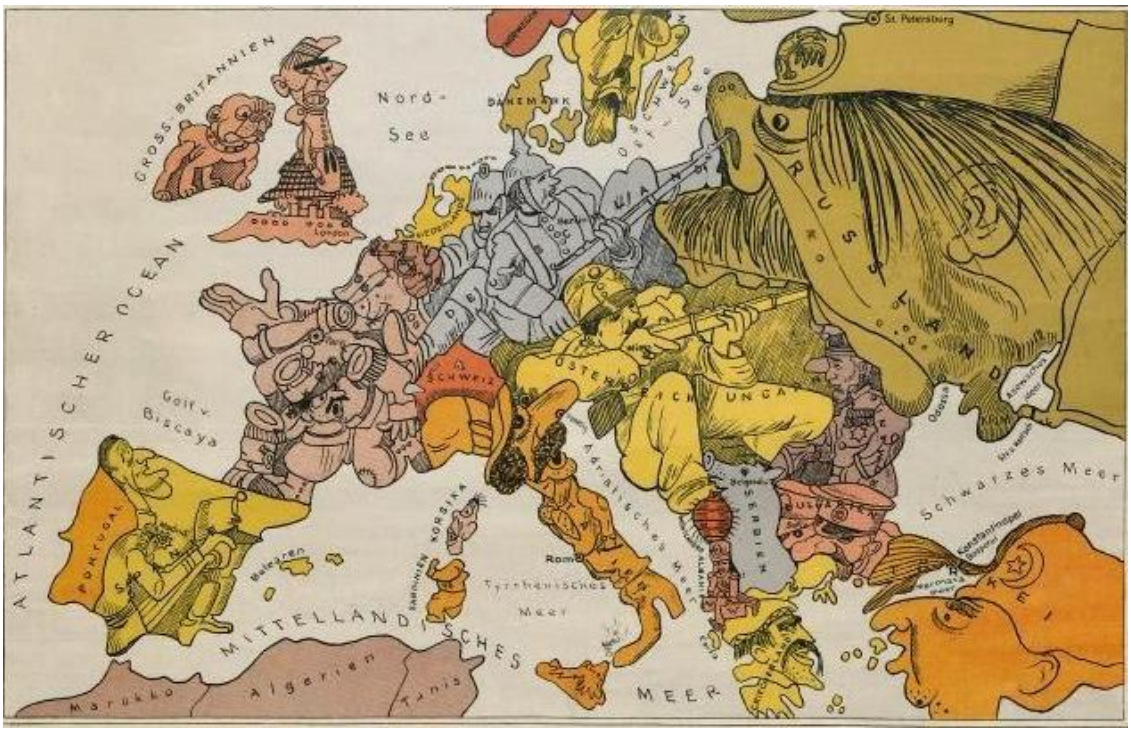
Simulation Game „Re-negotiating Peace"

World War I negotiation simulation

Apply and improve your debating skills!



Map: © Estate of Walter Trier, Vancouver, Canada

The simulation game takes place on October 18 - 19, 2014 at the Central European University, Budapest. Participants will take on the roles of members of the historical delegations to the Peace Conference from Germany, France, United Kingdom, Austria, Italy, Hungary and the United States of America. The groups will negotiate the most important questions of the treaties of Versailles, Trianon and Saint-Germain. Materials and summaries to know about the history of the negotiation will be provided in advance by the organizers.

Eligibility criteria:

- Enrollment in a university program in Hungary, or recent graduation
- Interest in the topic and basic knowledge on WWI
- Fluency in English

How to apply

Send your CV and a short motivation letter (max. 0,5 page) in English to Annamaria Kiss (kissa@ceu.hu) by October 3, 2014.