

Center for EU Enlargement
Studies

CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY

“EU-36”

“Eurozone”

Budapest, 13 September 2013

Central European University, Nádor utca 9, Monument Building, Senate Room

DRAFT AGENDA

08.30

Registration

09.00

Welcome and opening remarks

Péter Balázs, Director, Centre for EU Enlargement Studies, CEU

Panel I: Turkey and the Eurozone

09.15

Julius Horvath, Professor, Central European University, Budapest
- Title to be confirmed -

09.45

András Málnássy, International Taxation Analyst, Security and Defense Policy Expert, National Tax and Customs Administration, Budapest
“Could Turkey be a Eurozone member based on the present data of the Turkish economy?”

10.15

Ahmet Evin, Professor, Sabanci University, Istanbul
“Eurozone: Variable Geometry?”

10.45

Coffee break

11.15

Panel II: General discussion

Ahmet Evin, Professor, Sabanci University, Istanbul

Center for
EU Enlargement
Studies

CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY

Miloš Erić, Teaching Assistant, Faculty of Economics, Finance and Administration (FEFA), Belgrade

Frédéric Esposito, Senior Lecturer, European Institute, University of Geneva

Kai-Olaf Lang, Deputy Head of Research Division, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik (SWP), Berlin

Mihailo Crnobrnja, Professor and Dean, Faculty of Economics, Finance and Administration (FEFA), Belgrade

Mihajlo Babin, Teaching Assistant, Faculty of Economics, Finance and Administration (FEFA), Belgrade

Oleg Levitin, Senior Political Counselor, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), London

Tomáš Strážay, Senior Fellow, Research Centre of the Slovak Foreign Policy Association (RC SFPA), Bratislava

12.15

Concluding remarks

Péter Balázs, Director, Centre for EU Enlargement Studies, CEU

12.30

Buffet lunch