

“20 Years after Dayton: The Voice of Youth in Bosnia and Herzegovina’s Transition”

School of Public Policy, Central European University, Budapest
Október 6. utca 7, Room 102
17 April 2015

9:30-10:00 Registration

10:00- 10:15 Welcome Speech by Wolfgang Reinicke, Dean, School of Public Policy

10:15- 10: 45 Opening Remarks

- Zeljko Janjetovic Ambassador of Bosnia and Herzegovina to Hungary
- Peter Balazs, Professor, Central European University

10:45- 12:15 Panel I Constitution and Political Institutions in the last 20 years: Time for a Change?

Moderator: Dragana Marinkovic, Student, School of Public Policy, CEU

Speakers:

- Igor Gavric, CEU Alumnus
- Adnan Cerimagic, European Stability Initiative
- Jelena Radmanovic, Youth Board of Party of Independent Social Democrats (SNSD)
- Maida Omercehajic, Model International Criminal Court Western Balkans

12:15-1:15 Lunch Break

1:15- 2:30 Panel II One Step Forward Two Steps Backwards: Economic Development in the last 20 Years

Moderator: Sanela Muharemovic, Student, Political Science, CEU

Speakers:

- Jan Zlatan Kulenovic, Youth Information Agency
- Damir Dajanovic, ZastoNe NGO
- Ernad Deni Comaga, Democratic Youth Movement

2:30-2:45 Coffee Break

2:45-4:00 Panel III The Relevance of Civil Society and the Vision for the Future

Moderator: Radka Pudilova, Student, School of Public Policy, CEU

Speakers:

- Aleksandra Kuljanin, UN Women Bosnia
- Boris Covic, ONAuBIH Youth Journalist Organization
- Hana Semanic, Center for EU Enlargement Studies, CEU

4:00-4:15 Short Break

4:15-4:45 Closing Remarks John Shattuck, President and Rector, Central European University

4:45 Reception