

Central Europe after the Global Economic Crisis
30 September 2011, CEU, Popper Room

8.30-9.00 Registration

9.00-9.10 Welcome speech

Christian Schweiger, Lecturer in Government, School of Government and International Affairs, Durham University, United Kingdom

9.10-11.20 Assessing crisis management strategies from a three year perspective

Moderator: István Benczés, Corvinus University

Keynote speech: György Kopits, Senior Scholar, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

Speakers: Tamás Schenk, Director, Department of Strategic, Planning and Controlling Department, OTP Bank
Attila Bartha, Institute for Political Science, HAS

11.20-11.40 Coffee break

11.40-13.20 Does the integration integrate? – Comparing new members` and PIGS economies

Moderator: Christian Schweiger, Lecturer in Government, Durham University

Speakers: Lothar Funk, University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf
Bela Galgoczi, Senior Researcher, European Trade Union Institute, Brussels
Gábor Oblath, Institute of Economics, HAS

13.20-14.20 Buffet lunch

14.20-16.00 European Economic Governance and Central Europe

Moderator: András Deák, Research Director, CENS

Speakers: Ágnes Csermely, Director, Monetary Strategy and Economic Analysis, Central Bank of Hungary
Tamás Szemlér, Senior Research Fellow, ICEG European Center, Budapest
Krisztina Arató, ELTE Faculty of Law, Institute of Political Science

16.00-16.20 Closing speech

Péter Balázs, director CENS