

Conference program:

Date and venue: October 5th, 2011, 09:30

CEU, Monument Building, Popper Room

Chair: Peter Balazs, Director of CENS

Panel I: The radical right, the state, and institutions

09:30-11:30:

1. Grigorij Meseznikov (Bratislava, IVO Institute for Public Affairs)
Paper Title: „Concept of the State and Historical Legacy in Radical-Nationalist Politics in Slovakia“
2. Brian Porter-Szucs (Detroit, University of Michigan, Department of History)
Paper Title: “The Polish Radical Right and the Roman Catholic Church”
3. Gabriel Andreescu (Bucharest, National School for Administrative and Political Sciences, Department of Political Science)
Paper Title: “The Romanian Orthodox Church and the Radical Right”
4. Rafal Pankwoski (Warsaw, Never Again Association and Collegium Civitas) (awaiting final confirmation)
Paper Title:

Panel II: The radical right, history and society=

12: 30-15:00

1. Miroslav Mares (Brno, Masaryk University, Department of Political Science)
Paper title: “Historical Legacy of the Extreme Right on the Czech Territory”
2. Szele Aron (Budapest, CENS and Department of History)
Paper Title: “The historical teleology and weltanschauung of the Hungarian Radical Right”
3. Egry Gabor (Budapest, Institute for Political History)
Paper Title: "A Community without History, a Nation Without Society? The Hungarian Radical Right and the Nation"
4. Jan Charvat (Prague, Charles University)
Paper Title: "The current trends of extreme right-wing politics in Czech Republic"