

THE CEU CENTER FOR EU ENLARGEMENT STUDIES

cordially invites you to the roundtable discussion

“Eastern Promises: Will Transnistria ever come out from the “frozen conflict” zone?”

Monday, 26 March 2012
15.00 – 17.30
CEU, Nádor 9., Gellner Room

SPEAKERS:

Péter Balázs, Professor, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Hungary, Director, CENS

H.E. Alexandru Codreanu, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Moldova to the Republic of Hungary

Alexander Sergunin, Professor of Theory and History of International Relations, Visiting Fellow at CEU (St. Petersburg State University, Russia)

Botond Zákonyi, Director (Hungarian Institute of International Relations)

Witold Rodkiewicz, Research Fellow (Centre for Eastern Studies, Poland)

Victor Munteanu, Project Manager (United Nations Development Programme, Moldova)

András Rácz, Senior Research Fellow (Hungarian Institute of International Relations)

Vitaliy Ignatiev, Researcher (Centre for Social and Political Studies, Tiraspol)

Moderator: Matteo Fumagalli (CEU)